Dear Kasia and Patrick:

Many thanks again for a wonderful concert last Saturday. I know that all were delighted, entertained, and impressed, but many may not have fully understood the dedication and artistic integrity you brought to your program. Beautifully constructed, appropriate to the audience, and wonderfully diverse to show the rich facets of the influence of folk traditions, you delivered it with effortless panache that belied the amount of work I know you put in.

A class act all around... so brava and bravo to you both (respectively!).

All the best,

Tom Pixton
