

Berklee

COLLEGE OF MUSIC

Feb 2nd 1993

To Whom it May Concern,

Katarzyna Sokalla was my private voice student in the Fall semester of '92.

Miss Sokalla has an exceptional talent and good potential for a professional career.

She came to Berklee College of Music having already a good solid technical foundation, and she was very open minded to new ideas. This allowed her to further improve her technical abilities and to make an easy link between her past classical training and the new jazz and pop singing.

Katarzyna Sokalla is extremely musical, full of energy and always had the lesson materials well prepared. It was a pleasure working with her.

Miss Sokalla needs all the financial assistance that she can get to be able to finish her studies.

I am happy to recommend her as a candidate for scholarship. Please contact me if you need more information.

Sincerely,
Luz Bermejo
